

განვითარებისა და დემოკრატიის ცენტრი

STATEMENT

25 February, 2021 Year

REGARDING THE ATTACK COMMITTED AGAINST JOURNALIST VAKHO SANAIA AND HIS FAMILY

The Center for Development and Democracy categorically condemns the attack committed against journalist Vakho Sanaia and his family. Violence against a media representative threatens freedom of speech.

We hope that the ongoing investigation will be conducted in a timely and effective manner so that such violence is not encouraged and that media representatives are able to carry out their activities in a safe environment.